Statistical analyses Substance spectra analyses

5263 substance spectra were analysed on the basis of 1 measurement (2/9/2021) analysed with 83 hits. Hit means that the frequency pattern detected during the measurement coincides with parts of the frequency pattern of the indicated substance within the scope of the indicated percentage. It does not necessarily mean that the substance is present in the body or that it has the effect of, for example, an allergen, etc. in the body. Conversely the absence of a substance means, or of a specific microorganism in this analysis does not mean that this substance or microorganism cannot be present in the body of the person.

Information

These programs are adapted to energetically support the small bowel. The following categories are available to select from: 1. Standard, for general energetic support, 2. Functional/mechanical, for the surrounding and interconnected functional chains. The reverse amplitude is generally suited to energetically unblock the structures. Further treatment options arise from the groups Small bowel, Colon, Pelvic floor, the groups Organ lymph, and Autonomic nervous system. There is also the possibility to select further measurement objects from the group Fascia.
